Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

We respect the privacy of your personal health information and are committed to maintaining our patients' confidentiality. This Notice applies to all information and records related to your care that our facility has received or created. It extends to information received or created by our employees, staff, volunteers and physicians. This Notice informs you about the possible uses and disclosures of your personal health information. It also describes your rights and obligations regarding your personal health information.

We are required by law to:

- Maintain the privacy of your protected health information;
- Provide to you this detailed Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices relating to your personal health information; and
- Abide by the terms of the Notice that are currently in effect.

I. WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS

For Treatment: We will use and disclose your personal health information in providing you with treatment and services. We may disclose your personal health information to facility and non-facility personnel who may be involved in your care, such as nurses, physicians, nurse aides, and physical therapists. For example, a nurse caring for you will report any change in your condition to your physician. We may also disclose personal health information to individuals who will be involved in your care after you leave the facility.

For Payment: We may use and disclose your personal health information so that we can bill and receive payment for the treatment and services you receive at the facility. For billing and payment purposes, we may disclose your personal health information to your representative, an insurance or managed care company, or another third party payer. For example, a lab company may contact us for billing information such as a phone number to contact patient which we will provide.

For Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose your personal health information for facility operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to manage the facility and to monitor our quality of care. For example, we may use personal health information to evaluate our facility's services, including the performance of our staff.

II. WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU FOR OTHER SPECIFIC PURPOSES

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care: Unless you object, we may disclose your personal health information to a family member or close personal friend, including clergy, who is involved in your care.

As Required by Law: We may disclose your personal health information when required by law to do so.

Public Health Activities: We may disclose your personal health information for public health activities. These activities may include, for example

- reporting to a public health or other government authority for preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, or reporting child abuse or neglect;
- reporting to the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) concerning adverse events or problems with products for tracking products in certain circumstances, to enable product recalls or to comply with other FDA requirements;
- to notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or may otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or condition or
- for certain purposes involving workplace illness or injuries.

Reporting Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: if we believe that you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, we may use and disclose your personal health information to notify a government authority if, required or authorized by law, or if you agree to the report.

Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose your personal health information to a health oversight agency for oversight activities authorized by law. These may include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections and licensure actions or other legal proceedings. These activities are necessary for government oversight of the health care system, government payment or regulatory programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Judicial and Administrative Procedures: We may disclose your personal health information in response to a court or administrative order. We also may disclose information in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process; efforts must be made to contact you about the request or to obtain an order or agreement protecting the information.

Law Enforcement. We may disclose your personal health information for certain law enforcement purposes, including, as required by law to comply with reporting requirements;

- to comply with a court order, warrant, subpoena, summons, investigative demand or similar legal process;
- to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person;
- when information is requested about the victim of a crime if the individual agrees or under other limited circumstances;
- report information about a suspicious death;
- to provide information about criminal conduct occurring at the facility;
- to report information in emergency circumstances about a crime; or
- where necessary to identify or apprehend an individual in relation to a violent crime or an escape from lawful custody.

Research. We may allow personal health information of patients to be used or disclosed for research purposes provided that the researcher adheres to certain privacy protections. Your personal health information may be used for research purposes only if the privacy aspects of the research have been reviewed and approved by a special Privacy Board or Institutional Review Board, if the researcher is collecting information in preparing a research proposal, if the research occurs after your death, or if you authorize the use or disclosure.

Coroners. Medical Examiners. Funeral Directors. Organ Procurement Organizations: We may release your personal health information to a coroner, medical examiner, funeral director or, if you are an organ donor, to an organization involved in the donation of organs and tissue.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose your personal health information when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health or safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. However, any disclosure would be made only to someone able to help prevent the threat.

Military and Veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, we may use and disclose your personal health information as required by military command authorities. We may also use and disclose personal health information about foreign military personnel as required by the appropriate foreign military authority.

Workers' Compensation: We may use and disclose your personal health information to comply with laws relating to workers' compensation or similar programs.

National Security and Intelligence Activities: Protective Services for the President and Others: We may disclose personal health information to authorized federal officials conducting national security and intelligence activities or as needed to provide protection to the President of the United States, certain other persons or foreign heads of states or to conduct certain special investigations.

Fundraising Activities: We may use certain personal health information to contact you in an effort to raise money for the facility and its operations. We may disclose personal health information to a foundation related to the facility so that the foundation may contact you in raising money for the facility. In doing so, we would only release contact information, such as your name, address and phone number and the dates you received treatment or services at the facility. The money raised will be used to expand and improve the services and programs we provide.

Appointment Reminders: We may use or disclose personal health information to remind you about appointments.

Treatment Alternatives: We may use or disclose personal health information to inform you about treatment alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Benefits and Services: We may use and disclose personal health information to inform you about health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

III. YOUR AUTHORIZATION IS REQUIRED FOR OTHER USES OF PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION

We will use and disclose personal health information (other than as described in this Notice or required by law) only with your written Authorization. You may revoke your Authorization to use or disclose personal health information in writing, at any time. If you revoke your Authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your personal health information for the purposes covered by the Authorization except where we have already relied on the Authorization.

IV. YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION

You have the following rights regarding your personal health information at the facility:

Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request restrictions on our use or disclosure of your personal health information for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to restrict the personal health information we disclose about you to a family member, friend or other person who is involved in your care or the payment of your care.

We are not required to agree to your requested restriction (except that while you are competent you may restrict disclosures to family members or friends). If we do agree to accept your requested restrictions, we will comply with your request except as needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

Right of Access to Personal Health Information: You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of your medical or billing records or other information that may be used to make decisions about your care, subject to some limited exceptions. We may charge a reasonable fee for our costs in copying and mailing your requested information.

We may deny your request to inspect or receive copies in certain limited circumstances. If you are denied access to personal health information, in some cases you will have a right to request review of the denial. This review would be performed by a licensed health care professional designated by the facility who did not participate in the decision to deny.

Right to Request Amendment: You have the right to request the facility to amend any personal health information maintained by the facility for as long as the information is kept by or for the facility. You must make the request in writing and must state the reason for the requested amendment.

We may deny your request for amendment if the information

- Was not created by the facility, unless the originator of the information is no longer available to act on your request;
- is not part of the personal health information maintained by or for the facility.
- is not part of the information to which you have a right of access; or
- is already accurate and complete as determined by the facility.

If we deny your request for amendment, we will give you a written denial including the reasons for the denial and the right to submit a written statement disagreeing with the denial.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request an "accounting" of our disclosures of your personal health information. This is a listing of certain disclosures of your personal health information made by the facility or by others on our behalf, but does not include disclosures for treatment, payment and health care operations or certain other exception.

To request an accounting of disclosures, you must submit a request in writing, stating a time periods beginning after April 13, 2003 that is within six years from the date of your request. An accounting will include, if requested; the disclosure date; the name of the person or entity that received the information and address, if known; a brief description of the information disclosed; a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure or a copy of the authorization or request; or certain summary information concerning multiple similar disclosures. The first accounting period provided within a 12- month period will be free; for further requests, we may charge you our costs.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice: You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this Notice, even if you have agreed to receive this Notice electronically. You may request a copy of this Notice at any time. You may obtain a copy of this Notice at our website, www.texasintegrative.com.
